The Affidavit of James Copland of Lawful age taken on behalf of John Quick who is an applicant to the County Court of Loudon for a certificate for a pension. This Deponent being first duly sworn deposeth and saith that he is well acquainted with the said John Quick that he was well acquainted with him before the said John entered the army of the U. S. that he well recollects the said John was enlisted on the Continental establishment for the term of three years but does not recollect the time or the Regiment into which the said John enlisted. This Deponent was in the Army of the U.S. while the same lay at Valley Forge in the State of Pennsylvania [winter of 1777-78] where he met with the said John who was then an enlisted Soldier in the service of the U. States but does not recollect the Regiment which he served in. He recollects of the said John Afterwards serving under Gen'l. Woodford and believes he served out the full term for which he was enlisted and believes he was honourably discharged. That the said John was a good and faithful soldier and was engaged in the battles of Monmouth in which this Deponent was also. Sworn to before me Samuel M Edwards a Justice of the peace for the County aforesaid this 14th day of Sep 1822. Sam'l. M Edwards

State of Virginia S.S.

On this 9th day of August 1836, personally appeared before the County Court of Loudoun County, Elizabeth Quick, a resident of said county and state, aged from seventy four to seventy five years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on her oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress, passed July 4th 1836: That she is the widow of John Quick, who was a soldier in the Virginia Continental line, before marriage with said Quick & after her said marriage, he, said Quick served in the militia, during a part of the year 1781 that he served a regular three years in the former case and as a private in the latter for some three or four months: She further declares that she was married to said Quick, when she was about seventeen years old, and as well as she recollects about three weeks before Christmas in the year 1780, as her first child was born in the August following and while said Quick was in the service of his Country; that her said husband died on the 16th June 1831, and that she has remained a widow ever since that period as will more fully appear by reference to the proof hereto annexed.
